Sommeliers Arise!

Some forty-five years ago, Princeton University decanted upon our nation its 1966 vintage – a class that, as it aged and matured, would produce educators and entrepreneurs, jurists and writers, doctors and diplomats, among a broad range of lives of accomplishment.

Two observations:

A fine wine offers bouquet, imbued in the cask, affecting not only the one who holds the glass, but those around him as well. Embedded in Princeton vintage 1966 is a vibrant strain of engagement comprising people of informed good will who participate in myriad ways to contribute to their local communities, our nation and the world.

A fine wine has body, derived from the vine. The Princeton vineyard had been tended for generations by our forebears, so that we might, in our turn, become a robust vintage.

Also, of course, a conclusion:

Your gift to Princeton serves to ensure, vintage by vintage, successive classes of alumni committed to excellence and achievement. It keeps faith with those who made possible both our education and our contributions to the world about us.

Vintages '66 is almost half way to our 45th reunion campaign goal of 66% participation. Our momentum is gathering. All of us together can achieve our goals. Raise your glasses to Princeton! To 1966! Thanks!

With great appreciation,

P.S. Coming attraction in our next 45th Reunion bulletin include a discussion of Princeton's excellence in athletics -- year to date, Ivy Championships are equal to all other Ivy Schools combined!

As usual, this Bulletin is going out to every member of the Class, including those who have already made contributions or commitments, as a report on our progress and as a convenience for those who are making additional or installment gifts.
Short-Term and 50th Reunion Goals

Class Participation
- promote greater participation by classmates in class affairs, combining those classmates with “institutional knowledge” with “new blood” and new ideas

Communications
- create additional and improved communications with the class and among classmates, primarily via email and websites
- create improved communications and involvement with class widows/significant others

Class Activities
- provide several class events annually in addition to Reunions and our traditional post-Harvard/Yale football game party and Alumni Day Dinner, including at least one mini-reunion per year

Community Service
- continue to support/sponsor our community service relationships with the Princeton Prize in Race Relations and Princeton AlumniCorps (formerly Project 55)
- continue to support our class scholarships for undergraduates
- establish and implement a “grandfather” class relationship with the Class of 2016

Financial
- increase our class dues participation rate annually
- increase our class AG participation rate and dollar amount annually and maximize our 50th AG contribution

50th Reunion
- produce an outstanding 50th Reunion Class Book
- provide an outstanding 50th Reunion 4-day event
Annual Giving Overall Commitment as of 2/1/2012: $23,488,421
